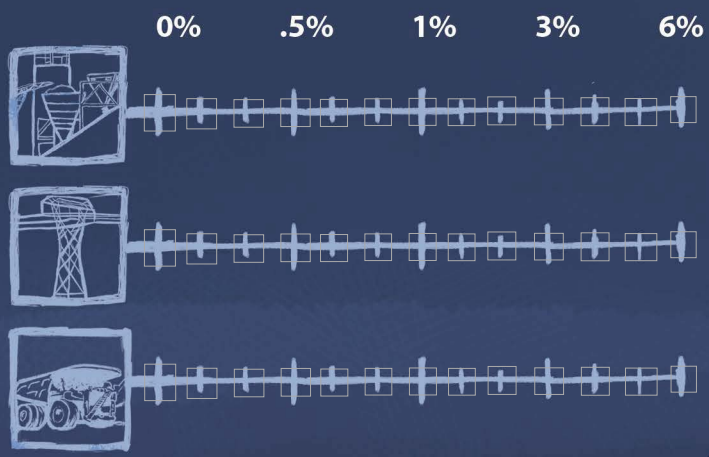
/Round (to start):
250,000 tons

/Round (to start):
500,000 tons

The Power Company (ON)

Electricity generation from fossil fuels (typically natural gas or coal) has significant CO_2 emissions, while that from other sources (nuclear, hydro, solar and wind) does not; the mix of sources varies significantly by Province. Power companies are very tightly regulated and generally enjoy high stakeholder confidence, but this will be damaged rapidly if varying electricity demand cannot be satisfied.

Cooperation Bonus



Stakeholder Confidence

Low Neutral High