

Digital Fluency Self-Assessment

Digital Skills	Emerging (Learning)	Basic (Practicing)	Proficient (Digital Literacy)	Advanced (Digital Fluency)
	 <hr/> ★ I am in the early stages of learning this skill.	 <hr/> ★ ★ I can use this skill to perform some tasks in my context.	 <hr/> ★ ★ ★ I can use this skill to perform most tasks in my context.	 <hr/> ★ ★ ★ ★ I can use this skill for complex applications and problem solving in my context.
Digital Collaboration interacting collaboratively with digital tools, for the co-constructing of knowledge, meaning, and content. (Such as: Screen sharing in Zoom)
Digital Communication communicating effectively and ethically in different contexts utilizing appropriate digital tools. (Such as: Constructing an email to a field placement advisor)
Digital Creation implementing new or unfamiliar digital tools and emerging technologies for the purpose of creation. (Such as: Using a new video editing tool for a 'How To' video assignment)
Digital Problem Solving troubleshooting technology and engaging in the inquiry process to represent data in various digital formats, to inform decisions.(Such as: Using Mindomo to create a mind map for a group project)

	★	★ ★	★ ★ ★	★ ★ ★ ★
Digital Research adopting digital tools and technology to effectively conduct research. (Such as: Using Zotero to organize research)
Digital Safety respecting personal digital data and knowing how to ensure safety while participating digitally. (Such as: Mitigating cyber risks when using Discord or WhatsApp to collaborate with peers)
Learning Specific Digital Skills assessing and applying transferable digital skills in learning environments. (Such as: Completing Discussion posts and Dropbox submissions in the LMS)
Operating Digital Productivity Technology understanding how different technologies and applications are connected to implement and achieve productivity outcomes. (Such as: Using Google Drive to store and collaborate on a group project)
Social Media Management managing social media profiles and digital community engagement for non-formal, informal, and formal learning. (Such as: Joining a community of practice on LinkedIn)				