

Module 1: Foundations of Professional Communication

Professional Communications OER

Module 1: Foundations of Professional Communication

The focus of this module is on establishing important foundational skills to address the complexities of communicating in the modern-day professional environment. Although work contexts and technology are continually changing, the key principles of communication remain the same and as relevant as ever.

Developed by JR Dingwall, Chuck Labrie, TK McLennon, and Laura Underwood for Olds College
Edited by Vesna Mirkovich